RALEIGH, Sept. 27, 1852.

To the Standing Committee of the Diocese of North Carolina:

Dear Brethren: Feeling it to be my duty, from the state of the health of Mrs. Ives and myself, to request an absence of six months from the Diocese, and an allowance of $1000 in advance on my salary to enable us to travel, I addressed a letter to the several parishes, making this request, and now submit the result to yourselves as my canonical advisors,—which result is much less full at this date than it will doubtless be on the 5th of next month—that being the time on which I requested an answer to my communication. Circumstances, however, having arisen to hasten my departure, I take this early opportunity to ask your official concurrence with the sentiments of the Vestries thus far expressed, and (1) consent to my absence for six months from the 1st of November; and (2) consent to my drawing on the Treasurer of the Diocese for one thousand dollars in advance on my salary.

With sentiments of the most affectionate regard,

I remain, Brethren,

Your faithful friend and serv't in the Lord,

L. SILLIMAN IVES.

I hereby authorize the Standing Committee of North Carolina, in my absence from the Diocese, to invite any Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States to perform Episcopal duty in my place.

L. SILLIMAN IVES,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Raleigh, Sept. 30, 1852.

[D.]

Rome, Dec. 22d, 1852.

For the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of N. Carolina:

Dear Brethren: Some of you, at least, are aware that for years, doubts of the validity of my office as Bishop, have at times harassed my mind and greatly enfeebled my action. At other times, it is true, circumstances have arisen to overrule these doubts and to bring to my mind temporary relief. But it has been only temporary; for, in spite of my resolutions to abandon the reading and the use of Catholic Books -in spite of earnest prayers and entreaties that God would protect my mind against the disturbing influence of Catholic truth-and in spite of public and private professions and declarations, which in times of suspended doubt, I sincerely made, to shield myself from suspicion and win back the confidence of my Diocese, which had been well nigh lost, -in spite of all this and of many other considerations, which would rise up before me as the necessary consequence of suffering my mind to be carried forward in the direction in which my doubts pointed, these doubts would again return with increased and almost overwhelming vigor—goading me at times to the very borders of derangement. Under these doubts I desired temporary repose from duties that had become disquieting to me, and determined to accompany Mrs. Ives, whose health demanded a change of climate, in a short absence abroad. absence has brought no relief to my mind. Indeed the doubts that disturbed it have grown into clear and settled convictions-so clear and settled, that without a violation of conscience and honor and every obligation of duty to God and His Church, I can no longer remain in my I am called upon therefore to do an act of self-sacrifice, in view of which all other self-sacrificing acts of my life are less than nothing-called upon to sever the ties, which have been strengthened by long years of love and forbearance-which have bound my heart to many of you as was David's to that of Jonathan-and make that heart bleed as my hand traces the sentence which separates all Pastoral relation between us—and conveys to you the knowledge that I hereby resign into your hands my office as Bishop of North Carolina,—and further, that I am determined to make my submission to the Catholic Church.

In addition, (my feelings will allow me only to say,) that as this act is earlier than any perception of my own, and antedates by some months, the expiration of the time for which I asked leave of absence, and for which I so promptly received from members of your body an advance of salary, I hereby renounce all claim upon the same, and acknowledge myself bound, on an intimation of your wish, to return whatever you may have advanced to me beyond this 22d day of December.

With continued affection and esteem, I pray you to allow me still to subscribe myself, your faithful friend,

L. SILLIMAN IVES.

Which being read, together with the accompanying documents, on motion of Mr. J. H. Haughton, the Report was laid on the table.

Mr. Haughton introduced the following resolution, which was read:

Whereas, Dr. Levi Silliman Ives has declared, by a letter addressed to the Convention, his final abandonment of the Protestant Episcopal Church in North Carolina:

Resolved, That the said abandonment has created a vacancy in the Episcopate in this Diocese.

Resolved, That this Convention will, at 10 o'clock A. M. Saturday, proceed to fill said vacancy.

On motion, Resolved, That the resolution, with the Report of the Standing Committee and the documents, be referred to a Select Committee to report to-morrow, and that their Report be made the order of the day.

On motion of Mr. Strange, the resolution was reconsidered.

The following preamble and resolutions were read to the Convention by E. L. Winslow:

Whereas, by the Report of the Standing Committee and the documents therewith submitted, Levi S. Ives did, on the 22d day of December 1852, apostatize to the Church of Rome, thereby rendering his separation from the Protestant Episcopal Church complete, as far as in his power:

Resolved, That the Episcopate of North Carolina is vacant by the abandonment of the same by the late Bishop thereof.

Resolved, That this Convention will proceed, on Saturday the 28th, at 9 o'clock, to fill the vacancy thus made, by the election of some suitable person as Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

Resolved, that a committee, consisting of two Clergymen and three Laymen, be appointed, whose duty it shall be to prepare carefully, after the adjournment of this Convention, a full statement of the facts in relation to the case of the late Bishop of the Diocese, L. S. Ives, and make report of the same to the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and also make a copy of the same Report, with the action of the General Convention thereon, to the next annual Convention of the Church in this Diocese.

On motion of Mr. Strange,

Resolved, That the resolutions of Mr. Haughton, the Report of the Standing Committee, and the accompanying documents, be referred to a Select Committee, consisting of five Clergymen and five Laymen, with instructions to consider and report.

On motion, Resolved, That the resolutions introduced by Mr. Winslow be referred to the Select Committee.

The President appointed the following to compose the said Committee: Rev. R. B. Drane, D. D., Rev. Edwin Geer, Rev. T. S. W. Mott, Rev. J. T. Wheat, D. D., Rev. A. A. Watson; Thomas Ruffin, G. E. Badger, Dr. F. J. Hill, Jno. H. Haughton, Robert Strange.

In consequence of the want of Sunday School Teachers, the attendance of Catechumens has been irregular, and the number not accurately ascertained.

During the past year this Parish has been much afflicted in the loss of some of its most influential members. But through the mercy of God, these sorrows have not been unattended with counteracting causes of rejoicing. The Parish has been able, after many difficulties and delays, to complete, with the exception of the steeple, a new Church, which is much admired for its architectural beauty. The design was furnished by Mr. Riehard Upjohn. An organ of ample power and fine tone has been procured.

A sum, ($2500,) supposed by the generous giver sufficient for the purpose, has been bequeathed by a late member of the congregation, to creet the steeple.

The same person has likewise bequeathed $5000 to found a Parochial School.

*The balance of this Assessment will be paid by private contribution. During the past year I have had the assistance in this Parish of the Rev. George Patterson, Deacon, and have thus been enabled to extend my own Sunday appointments to 6 or 8 in each month, including the Parishes of Grace Church, Plymouth, St. Luke's, Washington County, Church of the Advent, Williamston, and St. Thomas's, Bath, besides a promising Station at Hamilton, and several about the country. I have also kept up for nearly two years a Church School at Plymouth, in which I have at present the assistance of the Rev. Mr. Patterson, and Mr. B. S. Bronson, a Candidate for Orders in this Diocese.

The Service days of the Church are for the most part observed, and besides the daily religious exercises, weekly instruction is given to the pupils in the Chatechism and Prayer Book, as well as in Church History.

Upon the whole, the Parish appears to flourish.

I resumed charge of this Parish soon after the last Convention. I attend monthly, and at each visit give a Sunday night service to the town of Hamilton, 13 miles further, where generally a full congregation may be expected. There are several members of the Church there, who are reckoned in the Parish lists of the Church of the Advent.

I took charge of this Parish in December last—the grant of the Missionary Committee to my Assistant, Rev. Mr. Patterson, enabling me to do this by retaining his services in Plymouth. I have appointments not only in the old Church in Bath, but also in the country on the other side of Bath Creek, where indeed the greater part of the congregation reside. Besides this I have, in concert with the Rev. Mr. Geer, of St. Peter's, Washington, made several visits to Hyde county and the lower part of Beaufort. In these latter districts we have baptised several children, the record of which enters into the Parochial Report of St. Thomas's, Bath, that being the next Parish.

REPORT of Rev. Geo. Patterson, Deacon.

Since last Convention I have been officiating as Assistant to the Rev. A. A. Watson. My services have been mainly rendered at Plymouth and in its vicinity, but occasionally in neighboring Parishes. I have regularly assisted the Rector in the Church Services at Plymouth, and in his absence have myself performed the following official acts, which are included in the Parochial Reports, viz:

The contribution of $15 to Diocesan Missions over and above the regular Assessment, was occasioned by the recent Circular of the Executive Missionary Committee. Of the $125.53 for Parochial purposes, $48.36 was not gotten from the members of this Congregation.

The lack of Confirmations has been owing to the absence of all Episcopal visitation.

There is no cause for discouragement in this Parish, but rather the contrary.

The Rector of this Congregation is very much gratified at being able to state, that this year, for the first time, it has paid the entire Assessment upon it.

Other signs of improvement also are not altogether wanting. There has been no Confirmation, because there has been no Episcopal visitation. But the Rector is assured that the number of Communicants will be increased in the course of the ensuing year.

I entered upon the duties of this Parish, as Deacon, ninth Sunday after Trinity, Aug. 1st, 1852.

This year aid has been granted the Parish by the Missionary Society, but I am happy to state that for the coming year the congregation have, with praiseworthy zeal, relieved it, by raising for the Minister a very respectable support,—an example of what might, by the blessing of God, be accomplished in other Parishes similarly situated, could they be supplied with Ministers.

The Church building has been greatly improved by a thorough cleaning and painting.

A very neat and sweet-toned Melodeon has also been purchased, which is of great service in rendering more orderly the worship of God in praise.

The Holy Eucharist has been administered twice by the Rev. Alex'r Gregg, of the Diocese of South Carolina, who kindly consented to exchange duties with me for that purpose.

Beside my Parochial ministration in Asheville, I have visited during the year the villages of Marion, Waynesville, Burnsville, where good congregations attended upon our Services. I have also, as Presbyter, visited Rutherfordton four times to administer the Holy Communion.

A kind friend of this Church has made us an acceptable present of an appropriate Baptismal Font.

In this region of country, the cause of Christ—one with His Church—suffers sadly for the want of more Ministers. The harvest seems ripe enough, but the laborers are few. While we pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth more laborers into His vineyard, and to stir up the spirit of the few who are already working therein, it cannot be forgotten that prayer implies the use of all proper means within our power; and until some approved system be devised for training up Missionaries in our midst, I am persuaded that nothing of moment, as compared with what might and ought to be done, will ever be achieved among the mass of the people in these Western parts.

Since I entered upon my duties here, I have performed services as follows: In Morganton, three Sandays in each month; a Sermon in the morning, and the Service without a Sermon in the evening. This last is an experiment which has, on the whole, succeeded very well; still it is plain that here, as elsewhere, there is too much importance attached to the Sermon, and the Services of the Church are not valued as they ought to be. On the fourth Sunday in each month, I have held regular Services in John's River Chapel, where there has been generally a pretty good attendance, and a growing interest in the Services has been manifested.

Regular Services once a month (on Saturday) have been commenced at a School-house ten miles from here, where some interest has been aroused and several persons have expressed a desire to learn how to use the Prayer Book. It is to be hoped that (with God's assistance) we will be enabled to accomplish something in this new field.

In addition to this, I have held services in two other neighborhoods; in one of these places onee, and in the other twice. My Report shows the number of Baptisms, &c. not only in the Parish of Grace Church, but those belonging to John's River Chapel.

Services have been held on the first and third Sundays at Jackson. The Evening Services are for the instruction of Negroes. "Evening Prayer" twice during the week. Sunday School open every Sunday. Money, not mentioned in this Report, has been supplied also for the liquidation of the debt of the Church and the erection of a fence.

The second Sunday in the month is given to the town of Halifax, where the Services are well attended. Funds, nearly sufficient for the building of a Church in this place, have already been collected. A Parish has also been formed, under the name of "St. Mark's Church."

In Halifax there are nine Communicants.

The fourth Sunday, as well as each Thursday evening in the month, are given to the instruction of a large colored congregation on the plantation of H. K. Burgwyn, Esq.

The undersigned, by invitation of the Vestry, took charge of this Church the first of January last, and after so short a connection he finds encouragement in the healthy condition of its affairs—the ardent attachment of its members to the doctrines, ordinances and worship of the Church, and their christian unity.

Besides the regular Services appointed by the Church for Sundays and other days, he visits Woodville, 16 miles distant, and preaches there once a month. There is a most excellent state of feeling at that place, and he hopes to have a Church edifice erected there during the present year, as nearly $1000 have been secured for that purpose.

I have assisted in the Services once a month in the Chapel at Valle Crucis. I have kept up a Sunday School, with the assistance of Mr. George N. Evans, consisting of a Class of white children every Sunday morning, and a class of colored persons and children in the afternoons, until about Christmas. Since that time I have not been enabled to keep it regularly, and taught a Day School nearly four months gratis, for the children in the vicinity of Valley Crucis. I have held Services once a month at a private house on Lower Watauga, and occasionally at Easter Chapel, on Upper Watauga. Also at Cranberry Forge once a month for nine months; at Linnville about six months, and occasionally at the bottoms of Elk, or near there. There is manifestly an increased interest in the Services of the Church, and many are inquiring for the good old paths.

W. W. SKILES, Deacon.

REPORT of Rev. H. H. Prout, Missionary, Caldwell County.

LENOIR, May 9, 1853.

Rev. RICHARD S. MASON, D. D.: Dear Sir-As President of the Standing Committee of this Diocese, I submit to you my Report of Missionary Services during the past year.

Lenoir, Caldwell County, the Valley of the Yadkin, in the same County, and Valle Crucis, Watauga County, are the Stations which I have regularly visited in the performance of Ministerial duty. In the Church at Lenoir I have preached and catechised twice a month, and administered the Holy Communion three times. At the Valley of the Yadkin, Divine Service has been held once a month. In the Chapel of the Holy Cross, at Valle Crucis, I have preached and administered the Holy Communion on the first Sunday of each month in the year. At request of the Rev. Mr. Murphy, I administered the Holy Communion in Grace Church, Morganton; and in his absence, at another point in his sphere of labor I buried a member of the Church.

St. Andrew's Church, Lenoir, Caldwell County, was consecrated last Summer, by Bishop Ives, to the worship of God, according to the Liturgy of the Protestant Episcopal Church. On the same visitation, he also consecrated a Chapel near my late residence in Watauga County, by the title of Easter Chapel. I hope it may not be without use hereafter in Christ's behalf. Divine Service has been held there by the Rev. Mr. Skiles since my removal from Watauga County.

I cannot say that our discouragements are few, or that our prospects are very cheering in this circuit of Missionary labor. Yet the remarkable events of the last year have unsettled none amongst us, nor disheartened us in an unusual degree. If the defection of Bishop Ives has sharpened the enmity of any toward the Church, and given a fertile occasion to those who were ready to wish what has actually happened, I hope it may also have increased the watchfulness and humility and patient courage of others. It is to be wished that an event of so much sadness may not be without indirect benefit; teaching, as it does, a lesson of theological discretion; showing that the Church's path is indeed a "via media," and that only in this middle way are stability and safety.

The Committee to whom were referred the Report of the Standing Committee with its accompanying documents, and sundry resolutions relating to the case of Dr. Ives, having considered the same, beg leave

Levi Silliman Ives, D. D. LL D., lately the Bishop of this Diocese. having in the month of October last left the United States for Europe, upon leave of absence asked and obtained by him, for the purpose of recruiting his health and that of Mrs. Ives, alleged by him to have become impaired: and having, by a communication written from Rome, under date of the 22d day of Dec. last, (mentioned in the Report of the Standing Committee,) and addressed to this Convention in the form of a resignation of his Episcopal place and jurisdiction, made known the fact that he had renounced the Communion of the Protestant Episcopal Church and had determined to make his submission to the Church of Rome: and it thus appearing that he has relinquished and abandoned his Episcopal charge, and by his apostacy to the Roman Church has disabled himself from ever exercising any Episcopal jurisdiction within this Diocese: this Convention, in the name and in behalf of all the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese, doth declare the Episcopate thereof to be vacant; and therefore

Resolved, That the Convention will proceed to elect some suitable person as Rishop of this Diocese, to fill the said vacancy.

Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of three Clergymen and two Laymen, be appointed, with instructions to draw up a detailed statement of the difficulties between Dr. Ives, lately the Bishop of this Diocese, and the said Diocese, and that they deliver the same to the Delegates from this Diocese to the next General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, to be by them laid before the said General Convention; and also that a copy of the said statement be published with the Journals of this Convention.

Respectfully submitted.

R. B. DRANE, Chairman.

Which resolution was put to the house by the Secretary, and was Pending which motion, a motion was made to adjourn, and the Convention adjourned to 5 o'clock P. M.

5 o'clock P. M.

The Rev. J. C. Huske made the following Report from the Executive Missionary Committee:

REPORT of the Executive Missionary Committee.

This Committee, beyond the statement of mere business transactions, have but little to report the present year.

The funds placed within their control, applicable to the year now ending, amount to $2495 85. Of this sum they have appropriated $2456 25. The balance, with contributions which have come in subject to appropriation for services during the year commencing at this date, amounts to $807 89.

The Stations which have been aided by appropriations, with their incumbents, are as follows:

Plymouth and Washington County, Williamston, Hamilton and Bath.—Rev. A. A. Watson and Rev. Geo. Patterson.

Pittsborough and St. Mark's, Chatham.—Rev. A. F. Olmsted, Lenoir.—Rev. H. H. Prout.

Church of the Epiphany, Leaksville.—Rev. J. R. Lee.

Asheville.—Rev. J. Buxton.

Rutherford.—Rev. R. H. Mason.

Hillsborough and St. Mary's Chapel.—Rev. J. B. Donnelly, Louisburg and Granville.—Rev. J. J. Ridley.

Hertford and Gatesville.—Rev. W. E. Snowden.

Mocksville and parts adjacent.—Rev. J. G. Jacocks.

Jackson, Northampton County.—Rev. F. Fitzgerald.

Wilkesborough.—Rev. R. W. Barber. Wadesborough.—Rev. H. H. Hewitt.

Charlotte and Lincolnton .- Rev. T. S. W. Mott.

Morganton.—Rev. J. W. Murphy. Smithville.—Rev. Peyton Gallagher.

The Committee again ask of the incumbents or Vestries of the several Missionary Stations, to transmit a statement of the means of their respective Parishes to support the Services of the Church, within the first quarter of the Conventional year. The information received on this point during the last year has relieved them, in several instances, from doubt and hesitation, and they express the hope that this request will be generally complied with.

They mention with pleasure that the Church of the Epiphany, Leaksville, has this year relinquished their claim to one-half of the usual Missionary appropriation, with the design of supporting the Services of the Church by their own unaided efforts; and Rev. Jas. G. Jacocks has also relinquished a part of his claim on the fund. And the Committee call attention to this instance, as exemplifying in their opinion the real end and design of the Missionary institution, namely: to aid, with the funds placed at their disposal, weak Parishes, until they shall become able to support themselves.

It is to be feared that this fact is too often lost sight of; and that Parishes, relying on the aid which they have heretofore received from this source, and on its continuance, do not contribute to the extent of their ability. And thus they deprive the Committee of the power to carry out the real aims of the Church, by extending more efficient support to weaker points and to unoccupied fields of labor.

The prospects of the Church in the Missionary department are encouraging. Increased and urgent calls for the Services of the Church, in new and inviting fields, have been made upon them during the year just closed, to which they have been able but feely to respond.

Anxious to discharge the responsibilities of their trust, and with the sanction of the Standing Committee as the highest Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese under present circumstances, they have issued a Circular, addressed to the Clergy, briefly setting forth what they conceive, in their judgment, to be the wants and necessities of the Church, and the duties of her members at the present time; of which the following is a copy:

"To the Members of the Protestant Episcopal Church in North Carolina:

"Dear Brethren: The Executive Missionary Committee, acting under the sanction of the Standing Committee—the present Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese—desire to draw your attention to the present condition of the Missionary interest of the Church, and to urge upon you the importance of increasing the contributions to the Missionary Fund.

"A few words only, will be sufficient to present to your minds the facts, which, in the judgment of the Committee, make this appeal proper.

"In the first place, then, the appropriations for the present year, to the Missionaries now engaged in the service of the Church, have exhausted the fund at the disposal of the Committee. These appropriations, small as they have been at the most, your Committee would have been obliged to lessen during the present year, but for the voluntary relinquishment, by one of the Missionaries, of one-half of his just claim upon the Missionary Fund.

"We have before us the statements of the Missionaries themselves, (made in compliance with a recommendation of the last Convention,) setting forth the amounts received directly from the people whom they respectively serve. And these amounts are in all cases so small, that we do not see how your Missionaries are to live, if there should be any material reduction of that aid from the Missionary Fund which goes to eke out their scanty support. Unless the Congregations themselves do more towards the support of their respective Ministers, it is certain that the contributions from the Missionary Fund cannot be diminished without running the risk of losing the services of valuable men.

"But, in the second place, earnest applications for Missionary help have been made to the Committee, during the present year, from various points, where inviting fields for Missionary labor are opening.—
These certainly must be regarded as indications of Providence, calling for increasing energy, activity, and liberality. Urgent demands—like these—for the Services of the Church, and at the present time, are as encouragements, divinely sent, to awaken our zeal for the diffusion of the truths of the Gospel in their entireness, and proofs that the hand of the Almighty is stretched out to guide the Church in her onward way.

"To these applications, however, your Committee could make only a very inadequate response.

"Such then, being the case, it is clear that if we mean to maintain our present Missionary posts, we must all resolve to be more liberal—to give more of our substance to the support of these faithful and laborious men, now relying upon us for the means of subsistence, while doing their most important work. And if it be our purpose, as it is our duty, to do not only this, but to extend the influence of the Church of Christ—to send men to occupy ground which by the providence of God is newly opened, or to reclaim those portions of our Lord's vineyard which, from want of Ministerial culture, have run to waste,—then it is equally clear, that we must resolve to give more largely still.

"Being entrusted by the resolutions of the Convention of 1836, "with the whole management of the Missionary operations of the Diocese, and thereby vested with authority to devise ways and means for conducting these operations," and acting at the suggestion of the Standing Committee, we have deemed it to be our duty to lay these facts before you, and to ask of you more liberal contributions to the Missionary Fund. All of which is respectfully submitted, with the confident trust that God will put it into your hearts to make a hearty and liberal response.

"By order of the Committee.

"J. C. HUSKE.
"GEO. BENTON.

"Fayetteville, N. C., May 4, 1853."

Respectfully submitted.

J. C. HUSKE, Chairman.

Resolved, That the Constitution be further amended by adding the following Article:

ARTICLE 13. No person shall hereafter be elected as Delegate or Alternate Delegate from this Diocese to the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who is not a Communicant of the Church.

The Committee report, that for the present no action on this matter is necessary.

W. E. SNOWDEN.

On motion, Resolved, That the Report lie on the table.

The ballots having been counted, it was found that the following were elected Delegates to the General Convention: Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., Rev. R. B. Drane, D. D., Rev. A. A. Watson, Rev. S. I. Johnston, of the Clergy; John H. Bryan, Edward Lee Winslow, Dr. Thos-H. Wright, Josiah Collins, of the Laity.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to 9 o'clock Saturday morning:

At Night, Prayers were said by the Rev. Chas. M. Parkman, and a Sermon preached by Rev. J. T. Wheat, D. D., from 6th verse of the 6th chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel.

SATURDAY, May 28:

Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Prayers were said by the President.

Minutes of yesterday read.

Rev. Mr. Watson moved that the word unanimously, as stated in the record of the vote on the preamble and first resolution in the Report of the Committee of 10, to whom the resolutions relating to the late Bishop of the Diocese were referred, be stricken out, which was not carried.

Col. A. Joyner, Dr. Jos. F. Tompkins, and Dr. John H. Hill, members of this Convention, appeared and took their seats.

The Committee of Finance made the following Report, which was accepted:

REPORT of the Committee of Finance.

The Finance Committee, to whom were referred the accounts of the Treasurer for the last fiscal year, have examined the same and find them all correct, and the general balances of Cash reported by him as belonging to the several funds in his charge, to be on deposit in the Bank of Cape Fear, Fayetteville.

The Scale of Assessments will be the subject of a future Report. WM. N. HAWKS, Ch'n.

The Committee on the subject of the salary of the Bishop of this Diocese made the following Report, and recommend the resolution appended to the Report:

The Committee to whom was referred the resolution to inquire into the expediency of increasing the salary of the Bishop of this Diocese and of providing him with a suitable residence, have had the same under consideration and beg leave to report: That they deem it inexpedient at present to take any measures towards procuring or fixing the residence of the Bishop; but they recommend that his salary shall be increased to the sum of Three Thousand Dollars per annum.

A. J. DEROSSET, Jr., Ch'n.

Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop of this Diocese be increased, and fixed at Three Thousand Dollars.

On motion of Mr. Ruffin, Resolved, That the sum of $3000 be stricken out, and $2500 inserted. Which motion, after full debate, was adopted, and the salary of the Bishop of the Diocese was fixed at $2500.

The Committee on the State of the Church made the following Report, which was adopted:

REPORT of the Committee on the State of the Church.

The Committee on the State of the Church respectfully report: That they have examined the Parochial Reports submitted to them, and find that there have been 438 Baptisms; that there are 1022 Catechumens; 1778 Communicants; 73 Marriages; 166 Burials. There have been only 41 Confirmations,—the smallness of the number being attributable to the peculiar state of the Diocese. These statistics the Committee do not believe shew the true state of the Church, as there are a number of Parishes from which no Parochial Report has been received. The Committee beg leave to bring to the notice of the Convention, the suggestion made by the Committee on the State of the Church to the last Convention, to-wit: that there should be one or more Missionaries at large in the Diocese.

The present state of peace and confidence of the Church in this Diocese, when we consider the events which have occurred to try her faith and patience, exhibits the love and allegiance of the hearts of her Clergy and people to her doctrines, discipline and worship, and is just cause of thankfulness to her Great Head, our Lord Christ.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SAM'L I. JOHNSTON, Ch'n.

Mr. J. H. Haughton moved to take up the order of the day, being the election of a Bishop of this Diocese.

Leave was granted that the Clergy should retire for consultation, and after waiting some time for their return, the Lay members took a recess until 5 o'clock P. M.

5 o'clock P. M.

The Convention met, notice having been received that, under the Constitution of the Church in this Diocese, the Clergy were ready to nominate an individual for the office of Bishop.

The list of the Clergy was called, and as they were called each member deposited his ballot.

On counting the ballots, it was found that there were 27 present entitled to vote and had voted, of which two-thirds, or 18, were necessary for a choice; whereof the Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., of Baltimore, had received 20 votes; Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., of Raleigh, received 3; Right Rev. Dr. Southgate, of Boston, 2; and that 2 votes were blank.

Rev. T. Atkinson, D. D., was therefore declared duly nominated and appointed by the Clergy.

The Lay vote being called for, the list of the Parishes entitled to vote, and represented in this Convention, was called. 30 Parishes voted; whereof 25 voted to confirm the nomination and appointment of the Clergy; 3 voted in the negative; and 2 voted blank.

The Rev. T. Atkinson, D. D., having thus received two-thirds of the votes of each Order in this Convention, was by the President declared duly elected Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina.

The Secretary was directed to prepare the usual Testimonial for the Bishop elect.

On motion the Convention adjourned to 8½ o'clock P. M.

 $8\frac{1}{2}$ o'clock P. M.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The President of the Convention being absent, the Rev. Dr. Wheat was requested by him to take the Chair, which was done, and the Convention proceeded to business.

The Testimonial for the Bishop elect, required by Canon III of 1832, was read, and the Clergy and Laity proceeded to sign the same as their names were called.

Mr. R. Strange, appointed on the Committee to prepare a Statement in relation to the case of the late Bishop and the Diocese, asked leave to be excused from serving on the Committee; and leave was granted by the Convention.

Resolved, That the Convention proceed to appoint Alternate Delegates to the General Convention.

On motion, the usual mode of ballot was dispensed with, and the 4 Clergymen and the 4 Laymen who received the greatest number of votes after the 4 Clergymen and 4 Laymen elected, be the Alternate Delegates; which was agreed to.

The Rev. A. F. Olmsted, Rev. Jos. C. Huske, Rev. Jos. Blount Cheshire, Rev. F. M. Hubbard, Thomas Ruffin, G. E. Budger, Dr. F. J. Hill, J. H. Haughten, are the Alternate Delegates to the next General Convention of the Church.

The Rev. Mr. Huske made the following Report from the Committee on the Relief Fund:

REPORT of the Committee on the Relief Fund.

The Committee on the Relief Fund respectfully report: That there has been paid into the Treasury during the past year the sum of $437 88; which being added to the balance on hand last year of $42 18, amounts to $480 06. Of this Fund, Mrs. Wiley has received the sum of $258 74, and Mrs. Thurston the sum of $139 32; leaving a balance in the Treasury at present of $82 00.

22 Parishes have paid the Assessment for this Fund in full; 5 Parishes have exceeded the Assessment by small sums; 16 Parishes have not contributed at all to this Fund; and 9 have contributed only in part.

It appears that there has been an increase of contribution to this Fund, during the past year, of $47 19.

The Committee have nothing to add to this statement, by way of urging the claims of this Fund upon the members of the Church, except to commend the subject to the serious consideration of the delinquent Parishes.

J. C. HUSKE.

On motion of Mr. J. H. Haughton, which motion was amended by a motion of the Rev. Mr. Geer,

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese be instructed and requested to inform the Rev. T. Atkinson, D. D., Bishop elect, of his election.

Which was adopted.

The following were elected the Standing Committee for the ensuing year: Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., Rev. F. M. Hubbard, Rev. Aldert Smedes, John H. Bryan, Geo. W. Mordecai.

John W. Wright was unanimously appointed Treasurer of the Convention for the ensuing year.

On motion of Mr. Ruffin,

Resolved, That so much of the resolution, adopted May 23d, 1845, providing for the appointment of Trustees for the Church in this Diocese, under the Act of Assembly ratified the 8th day of January 1845, entitled "An Act to amend the Revised Statutes entitled Religious Societies," as appoints Levi Silliman Ives, lately Bishop of the Diocese, one of the Trustees, be and the same is hereby rescinded and repealed; and that hereafter the Bishop of the Diocese, when there is a Bishop, and when there is no Bishop, the President of the Standing Committee, ex-officio, with the two Laymen elected or who may be at any time elected by the Convention, under the said resolution, shall be the Trustees for the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, for the purposes in the said Act mentioned.

On motion of Rev. A. A. Watson,

Resolved, That the Committee appointed to revise the Canons and the Standing Resolutions be continued, with power to report also on the Constitution of the Church in this Diocese as to any amendments, at the next Convention. And that the President of the Convention fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal from the Diocese of the Rev. J. A. Shepherd.

Rev. F. M. Hubbard appointed.

On motion,

Resolved, That the Secretary print and circulate 1500 copies of the Journals and the Convention Sermon, and 500 copies of the Statement to be prepared by the Committee on the case of the late Bishop.

At 10 o'clock P. M., on motion, adjourned to Monday, 5 o'clock A.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Minutes of Saturday read.

On motion of Dr. F. J. Hill, Resolved, That the Minutes be amended by striking out the record as read, and stating that Rev. Dr. Atkinson was elected Bishop by the constitutional majority.

Which motion was not carried. The Minutes were found correct.

The Rev. Mr. Parker made the following Report from the Standing Missionary Committee, which was adopted:

REPORT of the Standing Missionary Committee,

The Missionary Committee respectfully report: That there are seventeen Ministers-more than one-half of all engaged in the regular discharge of Parochial duty-who, during the past Conventional year, have been assisted by the contributions of the Diocese at large; while not quite two-thirds of the amount of the Assessments have been paid by the several Parishes. In view of these facts, in connection with the gratifying intelligence that fresh fields of promise are continually inviting the labors of our Ministers, your Committee would urgently press upon all the members of the Church, especially at this time, the high obligation of appropriating freely of their substance to this department of christian charity; while they would recommend to the consideration of the Parishes receiving assistance, the duty of making more strenuous efforts to supply for themselves the blessings of the Gospel, and to provide for the support and comfort of those who serve them in the Lord. This visible proof that the value of their services was felt and appreciated, would cheer the hearts and strengthen the hands of their faithful Ministers, and encourage them to engage with greater energy and zeal in the labors of their holy office; while by the blessing of God upon every thing that is freely done for His sake, the sacrifice and self-denial which might be required to effect it would result in their own spiritual improvement. Thus, too, they would directly promote the extension and prosperity of our beloved Zion, by enabling the Executive Committee to dispense the contributions of the Church at large to other Stations more needy of their help. In this connection your Committee desire to express the sincere gratification with which they have learned that two Parishes, which up to this time have received aid from the Missionary fund, have resolved to forego that assistance, and under the blessing of God to provide out of their own means for the support of the Gospel—and earnestly to recommend their good example, so far as it is practicable, to the imitation of others.

The Committee recommend the same Scale of Assessments for Missionary purposes, and earnestly press upon the Parishes the duty of paying the same punctually.

JNO. H. PARKER.

On motion of Mr. Hale, Resolved, That the Scale of Assessments for the Bishop's Salary and Contingent Fund be increased one-third for the year 1853.

Which was adopted.

The letter of the Secretary of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, in relation to the amendment of the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, was read, and the amendment, after discussion, was rejected.

No further business, after Prayers by the President, the Convention.

adjourned sine die.

In every presentment the charge or charges shall be distinctly specified.

CANON II—Passed April 1817.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman.

For the trial of a Clergyman, the Bishop shall appoint three Presbyters, who shall be constituted a board for trying the accused person. The Board thus constituted, shall examine fully, the charges alleged, and keep a minute and accurate record of the testimony of the witnesses, and of every question and proceeding that comes before them. In all questions, a unanimous vote shall be necessary to a decision. He shall also keep a register of the names of the Communicants within his care. And it shall be the duty of each Minister to report annually to the Bishop, at the meeting of the Convention, the amount or sum total of said registers, and also the amount of the register of adults required to be kept by the aforesaid Canon of the General Convention, together with a written account of the state of the Parish. SERMON

PREACHED BEFORE THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA, MAY 26th, 1853,

By Rev. A. F. OLMSTED.

"In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength."-ISAIAH, XXX, 15.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

I could have wished that the duty which it happens to me to perform on this occasion, had fallen upon one whose age and experience better fitted him to speak to us words of counsel and encouragement, suited to the times, and to the extraordinary circumstances under which we are, once more, met together. For our circumstances are indeed extraordinary. In this assembly, designed to represent the Church in her constituent parts, we miss him who should be to us the centre of unity, binding all in one. Priest, Deacon, and People are here; but where is our Bishop? Where is he who was wont to preside in our Councils in times past, and who, for more than twenty years, has gone in and out among us, as our Chief Shepherd and Guide? Does sickness withhold him from us? has death robbed us of him, that he is not in his place here to-day among us, as of old? Alas! voluntarily he has left us forever; and in his absence from our midst on this occasion, we read anew the melancholy truth, that the last, and almost the first, Protestant Bishop, who has gone back to the Church of Rome, was the Bishop of our own beloved Diocese.

Of this act by which he has thus separated himself from us, of its antecedents or accompaniments, I propose not now to speak. He who has thus abjured his Apostleship, and forsaken the flock over which the Holy Ghost had made him overseer, has done an act too awful in its character and results, to be made the subject of mere reproach and vituperation. We are awed into silence and a forbearance of our own judgment, while we think of his accountability, who has done this act, to the great Head of the Church, who alone can judge unerringly of its impelling causes, and of all which may aggravate or extenuate his fault who has thus betrayed the trust once so solemnly committed to him.

He has gone from us forever. Be it so. Let the sad story of his fall, with all its painful associations, pass, as soon as may be, into silence and forgetfulness, "and his Bishoprick let another take."

I would consider this event, then, at present, only in its theological connections and bearings, in the subject which I propose briefly to discuss. And in addressing myself to the peculiar circumstances of the occasion, I trust I may be allowed a somewhat wider range of remark, and a looser treatment, perhaps, than would befit an ordinary sermon. I have taken the text, not for the purpose of a formal exposition, but as expressing a tone and temper of mind, which it is the design of this discourse, at this time to encourage in ourselves.

It is not to be concealed, that the event already alluded to, is a disastrous one, in some of its aspects and consequences. It is not among the least unhappy results of this and the other defections which have taken place, of late years, both in our own, and in the mother Church of England, that they tend to bring into suspicion and disrepute, doctrines, principles, and persons, even the Church itself, with which they who have thus gone out from us, were once associated. These sad perversions are held by some to prove that Romanism is the ultimate, natural, and necessary result, of Church principles, especially—(I cannot well dispense with the word, though I do not particularly affect it)—of High Church principles. "See," it is argued, "these persons once held such principles, and they have ended by becoming Romanists; therefore these principles and doctrines necessarily lead thither."

The reasoning is plausible, though it may turn out to be only the very common fallacy of proving from a mere sequence of facts, their logical and necessary connection. And the mischief of this inference against Church principles is, that under a general term thus sought to be discredited, are classed indiscriminately, not only opinions and practices which are false and alien to our system, and of a Romish tendency, but also real and true principles and doctrines of our own Church; which, as good Churchmen we do hold, if we hold to the teachings of our Prayer Book, and of our great standard theologians. I may instance such doctrines as those of the Divine Constitution of the Church in the Episcopate, and the Apostolic Succession of the Ministry—Baptismal Regeneration, and the Real, Spiritual, Presence of the body and blood of our Lord in the Holy Communion; or the doctrine generally of Sacramental grace; and the importance of forms and ceremonies in religion as having much to do with the inward life and power thereof.

These and the like principles, it is alleged, lead naturally to Romanism. Romanism entire in its doctrine and practice, is their necessary complement.

And the charge is thought to be strengthened by the fact, that some who once held these views, have actually embraced Romanism; and it is implied, if not openly alleged, that they who still hold them and yet remain in the Church, do so by a happy inconsequence in their reasoning, or a lucky inconsistency between principles and practice. Is this to be believed by any reflecting and candid mind? Of the eighteen or nineteen thousand Clergymen, for example, in the English Church and our own, by a great majority of whom these principles are firmly held, can it be thought that the mere handful, comparatively, who have gone out, are the only ones who have the ability to see, or the honesty to follow, where their principles would lead them?

Can the few and mostly isolated secessions from our own Church to that of Rome, which have taken place within the last few years, be held to prove such an affinity between the two, as shows the transit from us to Rome to be natural and easy, and but the carrying out of our principles to their fair and necessary results?

Indeed this theory of tendencies, so plausibly urged against our Church, and which these miserable defections are quoted as evidencing, would lead us to curious and perhaps unexpected conclusions, in some other applications of it. For example: Within the last few years, many hundreds of their ministers and people have come over to us, from the various religious denominations around us. Will our Dissenting friends, from these facts, allow a "tendency" in their systems to Episcopacy? Will they admit such results to issue from the genuine and regular development of the principles and doctrines held among them? Of course not. They will say, that the deserters had first lost their hold upon the true principles of their own system, and somehow taken up new notions, and opinions, and sympathies; and that thus they were led away.

Again: It is notorious, that not a few of those who have thus left us, were of these very persons who came to us originally from the sects around us; and who, without ever having been grounded and settled in the true principles of our Church, seem to have made it hardly more than a point of transit to the Church of Rome; thus passing from one extreme to the other—from ultra Protestantism to Romanism. Now in the case of such persons, which is to be held responsible for the result, the religious system in which they were born and nurtured, which had the training of them, but failed to ground them firmly and unchangeably upon the truth; or the Church which never had a real hold upon them, and whose principles they never rightly understood, nor thoroughly embraced?

Again: at the very time that the Romanizing movement has been going on among us, a counter movement of much greater significance has been progressing in Ireland, where, within the last few years, the Romish Church has lost more than thirty thousand members, who have conformed to the Protestant faith, by joining the Reformed Church of Ireland.

How stands the theory of tendencies, in view of facts so various, opposite, and conflicting? Can any thing more be soundly argued from these facts than this: that in a time of great intellectual activity, religious inquiry, and theological controversy, the minds of many, loosened, by one cause or another, from their old moorings, and setting sail in different directions, have arrived at very different havens, and in many instances, very distant from the spot whence they set out?

And this brings me to remark, that if we would rightly understand these defections, (thus sought to be turned against us) in their causes and bearings upon Church principles, and whether they should shake our confidence in the truth and strength of our position as Churchmen; we should consider them in connection with the great movement which has been going on in the Church of England during the present century, and more especially within the last twenty or twenty-five years. It has communicated its impulse to our own Church, which has shared many of its results.

It has been, not unaptly, styled the Second Reformation. To understand aright its character and results, we must go behind the present into a brief notice of the state of the English Church in the century preceding.

The eighteenth century forms in her history, for the most part, a Speaking generally, it was an age of spiritual declendreary chapter. sion and barrenness, of religious indifference or active unbelief. ther owing to a natural reaction from Puritan fanaticism and excess in the previous century, or to the Church's inability to perform her duty under the trammels of the miserable State policy to which she was subject, or to these and other causes, yet such was the fact. tion was suppressed. Erastianism had overspread the Church like a The idea of the Church's Divine character, and independent spiritual constitution and powers, seemed almost lost; and it was regarded as a mere State establishment, its subservient creature and pliant instrument for political purposes. Its highest offices and emoluments were often bestowed upon unworthy men, as the reward for partizan services. Churches were suffered to go to decay and ruin. vine Service was made almost hateful and loathsome by the coldness, indevoutness, and oftentimes slovenly carelessness, and indecency with. which it was performed. Theological learning received little encouragement, active zeal was viewed with jealousy, and any pretensions to spirituality and strictness of life, stigmatized as fanaticism. The Church was fast losing her hold upon all classes of society, and religion was at its lowest ebb. Of course there were shining exceptions to this state of things; but that the view is generally correct, abundant proof might be brought to show. It may not be amiss to quote one or two remarkable testimonies from one not given to exaggeration, the devout Bishop Butler. He lived and wrote towards the middle of the eighteenth century.

In a Preface to his great work, the Analogy, as showing to what a deplorably low state religion had fallen, he says: "It has come, I know not how, to be taken for granted by many persons, that Christianity is not so much as a subject of inquiry, but that it is now, at length, discovered to be fictitious. And accordingly they treat it, as if, in the present age, this were an agreed point among all people of discernment, and nothing remained, but to set it up as a principal subject of mirth and ridicule, as it were by way of reprisals, for its having so long interrupted the pleasures of the world." Again, in his Charge to the Clergy of his Diocese, he says: "I cannot forbear lamenting, with you, the general decay of religion in this nation; which is now observed by every one, and has been for some time the complaint of all serious persons. The influence of it is more and more wearing out of the minds of men."

Once more, as showing how the deep and fervent realities of Gospel holiness had given place to a mere cold and unspiritual morality, he complains, in his Sermon "on the Love of God," that "we are got into the contrary extreme to enthusiasm, under the notion of a reasonable religion; so very reasonable, as to have nothing to do with the heart and affections." To this low and unspiritual state of the English Church in the eighteenth century, was owing the great Methodist schism, which, in its first rise and beginnings, appears to have been a quickening of spiritual life within the Church herself; but from unwise management, as is not unlikely, the movement passed wholly out of her, and ended in a permanent and extensive schism. The evils to the Church, of this schism, were the fruit of her apathy and spiritual slumber; and were vastly greater than Romanizing and all other evils which may have attended her re-awakening; especially when we consider the results for good which have already grown from that awakening.

During the present century, and particularly within the last twenty or twenty-five years, a remarkable movement has been steadily going on in the Church of England, extending through all its parts and dependencies, sending its impulse across the Atlantic to our own Church, which has sympathized with it, and has shared many of its results. It may be characterised as, in the best sense, a great Revival of religious life and earnestness.

It has already borne abundant fruits, tokens of its reality and genuineness; and we have reason to hope that they are but the earnest of still greater and more excellent things to come. This awakening of spiritual life in the Church, has manifested itself in the increased holiness of its members, in a higher tone of devotion, and stricter rules of life—in the more frequent use of the means of grace—in the restoring, to some good degree, of the week-day and daily services of the Church -in the endowment of noble charities, and greater attention to the bodily and spiritual wants of the poor, the ignorant, and afflicted. is seen also in the restoration of old and decaying Churches, and the building of new ones; there being more Churches built now by English Churchmen, every successive year, than were built in the entire last There is also a revived attention to Christian Art, especially in its connections with the Divine Service and Worship. In Theology, there has been a recurrence to the older, deeper, and better Divines of the English Church, and to the writings of Primitive Antiquity. of the clearest and most gratifying tokens of the earnestness and reality of this great movement in the Church of England, is seen in the enlarged activity of her Missionary operations. There has been an increase of sixteen in her Colonial Episcopate within the last twelve years; and it now numbers twenty-six Bishops, most of them noble men of devoted zeal.

When there is added to this catalogue of good works, the strenuous efforts now making throughout the English Church for the revival of Convocation in its reality, to enable her by her own synodical action to meet the necessities of the times—an effort which has good hope of final success—may we not say that this movement has already produced great things; and may we not hope that God will prosper it to yet more glorious issues?

It was not, surely, in the nature of things, to be expected, that a movement fraught with so great a good, should have been unattended with some untoward results. It is not surprising that it should, in some directions, and in the case of some individuals engaged in it, have run out into exaggeration and excess. Nor is it difficult to see, how Romanism should, in some instances, have been a gainer, during this movement. It has been a period, as I have said, of keen intellectual activity, and rife with theological controversy. The old order of things was breaking up. Side by side with this renewed life in the English Church, the Church of Rome, with her restless, unscrupulous, and proselytizing spirit, has been astir; employing, as of old, that "eunning craftiness whereby" she "lies in wait to deceive." The Romish Controversy has, in a manner, re-opened. Nor has Rome, with her arts, been without her success. Here and there an individual, or, at the most, a little clique or set of men, has been beguiled by that marvellous system of falsehood and deceit, with which even to tamper, seems to deaden the moral sense and blind the clear perception of truth.

Of this number, some have been drawn over to Rome by her pretensions to superior sanctity, and boasted opportunities for greater self-denial and holiness; won by the sentimentalities of her devotional practice, and the sensuous attractions of her multiplied rites and ceremonies. Some have been overawed by her exclusive claims to Catholicity. Some, restless, subtle, and speculative minds, have been allured by the promise of an infallible Guide, who should put to rest their doubts.

Others have succumbed to a galling sense of State interference with their own Church; lacking faith and patience to wait her deliverance from the oppressive thraldom in God's good time. Some may have indulged the hope of bringing about a re-union with Rome; or if not that, of assimilating their own system more and more to her's;—and disappointed in that expectation, they may have gone over in chagrin at their failure in engrafting into their own Church, Romish doctrine and practice.

Such I believe to be a true account of the defections from the English Church and our own, which have taken place during the progress of the great religious movement of which I have spoken. They are not its legitimate product and fruit, nor the expression of its real spirit and purpose. It is unjust to charge them upon it. Still more unjust is it, to hold what are called Church principles, responsible for what is either the result of their exaggeration and excess, or, as in most of the instances alluded to, of an utter departure from them. It is not by an advance upon the line of the true principles of their own Church, that these misguided men have gone out; but by an embracing of new principles, views, and sympathies, alien to their own system. They went out from us because they had come to be not of us. The inner bond of union and sympathy with their own Church had been fretted away by the indulgence of a morbid discontent at her supposed deficiencies, and by dwelling upon the fancied perfections of the Church of Rome. Their loyalty had been tainted, and their affections transferred to another than their own spiritual mother, before they actually renounced her. And the very fact that they have gone, is testimony in favor of the Church they have left. It shows, that having imbibed the doctrines and spirit of Romanism, they could no longer sympathise with her spirit, nor stay within her. It is proof of the antagonism of the two Churches.

There is reason to think that this Romanizing reaction in our Church has nearly spent itseif. One of its unhappy consequences, as I have said, has been to bring suspicion upon persons, doctrines, and principles, with which they who have been actors in it, were once associated. It is charged that high views of the Church, of her Ministry and Sacraments, have a natural affinity with, and almost inevitable tendency to. Romanism. Indeed, it is seriously to be questioned, whether, at present, we are not in less danger of Romanizing in our Church, than, from a sort of panic sought to be created from its results, of a retreat from those principles which, as Churchmen, we have hitherto held, to some lower position. When even things true and right have been, for a time, strained too far and too high, there is always danger of such a recoil to opposite extremes. "Truth or right," says Butler, "is somewhat real in itself, and so not to be judged of by its liableness to abuse, or by its supposed distance from or nearness to error." Yet this so important truth is apt to be forgotten, especially at such times as the present. Let us not, then, be driven by a dread of Romanism into any opposite extremes. Security from error lies only in the possession and stedfast holding of the truth; and truth is not apt to lie in extremes.

Our own Church occupies a middle position between the errors of Rome on the one hand, and those of the ultra-Protestant sects on the It was reformed by a wise moderation, not upon the principle of rejecting everything which had been abused by the Church of Rome, but upon a different principle. Our Reformers rightly judged, that as Romanism itself was the corruption of a more primitive and purer Christianity, so a Reformation, to be true and safe, must be wrought by a return to the purity and simplicity of the ancient faith and practice. and not by an utter overturn of the existing religion, and a building up upon entirely new foundations. While zealous to reform, they sought also to preserve; and in the whole of their great work, were governed not so much by a desire to get as far as possible from the errors of the Church of Rome, as to bring back all things to the faith and practice of the purer and better ages of the Church. "We are come," says Bishop Jewel, as near as we possibly could, to the Church of the Apostles, and of the old Catholic Bishops and Fathers; and have directed according to their customs and ordinances, not only our doctrine, but also the Sacraments and the form of Common Prayer." Such was, notoriously, the principle upon which the British Reformation was conducted.

But because our Church, at the Reformation, took up her position on a middle ground, has she ever since been exposed, and perhaps will continue to be, to the imputation, from extreme Protestants, of latent "Popery" lurking in her doctrines and ceremonies;—while on the other hand, Romanists deny her Catholic character and claims, and class her indiscriminately with the rest of Protestants; the truth being, that against both extremes, she upholds that Primitive System from which they, by their innovations, have widely departed, though in different directions.

Whatever may be our Church's nearness to and affinity with the Church of Rome, as alleged, yet that she does hold, as against that corrupt Church, a clearly marked and distinct Protestant position, appears in the fact, besides the express declarations of her Articles and Homilies, that she has furnished some of the strongest champions of the Protestant faith. And they are men in whose writings the true mind and doctrines of the English Church stand expressed. Such were Jewel, Laud, Braimhall, Andrewes, Hooker, Jackson, Taylor, Hammond, Bull, and a host of others I need not name. These men were Churchmen, most of them high-toned Churchmen; yet they were most able and staunch defenders of the Reformed religion. And the very position their Church had taken up enabled them so successfully to maintain her claims against those of Rome. Not only our first Reformers, but all the great Theologians of the English Church, have rested her cause, in the great controversy with Rome, fearlessly upon the judgment of Ecclesiastical Antiquity.

How successfully they have done so, is seen in the fact, that the most able and favored defenders and apologists of modern Romanism, base its claims upon the new theory of Development, alleging the evidence of Christian Antiquity for their own system, only in its first germ and rudiment; thus virtually allowing our own claim to the benefit of that testimony. Upon that ground the battle has been fought and the victory won. Our own Church stands forth as the representative of Primitive Christianity. And in that fact greatly lies our safety and our strength. Other Protestant bodies not only cut loose from Romish corruptions, but unfortunately they also departed widely from the Primitive and Apostolic system itself. And if, by such an utter remove, they have escaped the dangers of Romanism, (which fact and experience make us doubt,) they have, by casting aside the safeguards of the old religion, run into other dangers. Whole bodies of them have already fallen off into manifold forms of heresy and unbelief.

To be thoroughly grounded and settled in the true doctrines and principles of our own Church, is, as I solemnly believe, the surest preservative against the insidious dangers of Romanism, and all other heresy and misbelief. Because it is to be grounded upon the doctrine and practice of that primitive Christianity to which our own Church, at the Reformation, was, as nearly as possible, conformed.

It is to be established in the faith of the Christian Church as it was before Romish corruptions had sprung up; and as it shall continue, when, as we trust, Romanism, as distinct from that purer and better faith, shall be overthrown and swept away.

Nor need we fear that the Church of England, with which our own is substantially one, will not prove herself, as in time past, so in time to come, the strongest bulwark of the Protestant religion. More nearly than any Church on earth, as we believe, does she in her forms of sound doctrine "hold fast the faith once delivered to the saints." More nearly than any other, is she identical in doctrine and polity, in life and spirit, with the Primitive Church of Christ.

"Go round about her and tell the towers thereof; mark well her bulwarks"—her venerable Creeds—the austere beauty and solemnity of her Ceremonies and Worship—the chastened fervors of her devotions the unbroken continuity and succession of her Apostolic Ministry—the solid learning, the calm strength, and ripe wisdom of her noble Theology.

That any one should forsake such a Church as this, for one so far gone in superstition and idolatry as that of Rome, is lamentable indeed; but there is nothing whatever in the fact to move us from our stedfast abiding by her doctrines and principles.

In the review of the past, in the signs of the present, there is nothing to alarm or dishearten us as members of that branch of the Catholic Church of Christ in which God's good hand hath planted us. There never was a time when we had more reason to feel confidence in the truth and strength of our Church's position than now; never a time when we might more properly realize the sentiment of the text, "In quietness and in confidence shall be your strength." Let us not then lose our hold upon those principles which, as Churchmen, we have hitherto cherished.

This Diocese has occupied heretofore, in the American Church, an elevated position for true, sound, and high-toned Churchmanship. Let us not be willing that she should, in any way, fall back from it. Let us abide stedfast by those principles upon which, under God, the Church in this Diocese was established, and upon which alone it has ever flourished, turning aside from them neither to the right hand nor to the left. Let us hope that the impress stamped upon it by its first Bishop.

the lamented Ravenscroft, will remain ineffaceable. Ever blessed be the memory of that true-hearted man and noble Bishop! And may God raise up to sit in his See, one worthy to be his successor; one who shall be to us "the repairer of the breach, the restorer of paths to dwell in."

Beloved Brethren: We are once more met together in council, to deliberate for the welfare of the Church in this Diocese. We have, of late years, come up to these assemblings with uneasy fears and forebodings, and it may be, with something of mutual distrust and suspiciousness. Perhaps our zeal and vigilance for the preservation of sound doctrine among us have been too much mingled with the allays of human infirmity, of human passion and prejudice.

But all this, it is to be hoped, has passed away, and a more cheering future is before us. Our Conventions were once noted for their unanimity, and the absence of all party division and strife. So may it be once more.

If in the earnest and honest differences which have divided us, in the unhappy times gone by, anything of coldness and estrangement have grown up among us, let it now be forgotten. Let us auspicate the opening of a Convention, fraught to our Diocese, it may be, with most important results, by laying aside all coldness, and distrusts, and suspiciousness. And may He "who maketh men to be of one mind in an house," make us to be of one heart and one mind, as in the peaceful and harmonious times of old.

"O pray for the peace of Jerusalem; they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and plenteousness within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will wish thee prosperity. Yea, because of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek to do thee good."
